2 What Every Deck Contains

Every deck follows the same arc. Content changes lesson to lesson; structure is consistent so teachers only have to learn the format once.

Section	Slides	Purpose
Opening — Title, Hook, Museum Scene	3–4	Build anticipation; establish the museum room and student role
Discovery Sequence	6–10	One cycle per concept: Clue Box → Observe & Discuss → Reveal
Why It Matters	1–2	Scaffolds the assignment reasoning questions
Virtue Spotlight	1	Connects concept to civics and character
Guided Practice	4–6	Model → Together → Supported → Error Analysis → Tricky One
Self-Check / Exhibit Label	1–2	Key concept summary + quick pulse checks
Assignment Preview	1–2	All assignment pieces visible, with sentence frames
Closing	1	Celebration + next lesson teaser

3 Key Features

DISCOVERY BEFORE DEFINITION

Every concept starts with a Clue Box slide — unlabeled evidence, no definitions. Students observe and discuss before anything is named. The reveal comes after discussion, framed as something students figured out, not something they were told. Vocabulary never leads; it always follows.

TWO PANELS VISIBLE ON-SLIDE

SOCRATIC QUESTIONS (navy box, cyan header) — The actual questions the teacher asks aloud. These are ON the slide, visible to students — not hidden in speaker notes.

CHAT FRAME (gold box) — Sentence starters students type in the chat box:
"I notice..." "I think... because..." "At first I thought... but now I know..."

GUIDED PRACTICE PROGRESSION

1. Teacher Think-Aloud — full script visible on the slide
2. We Try Together — guided questions, whole class
3. Your Turn With Support — checklist scaffold on screen
4. Error Analysis — a student misconception on screen to identify and fix
5. The Tricky One — an ambiguous case that sparks legitimate debate

ASSIGNMENT ALIGNMENT

The exact assignment questions from the Canvas lesson appear on their own slide. Every question is scaffolded earlier in the deck — students will have discussed and practiced the answer before they ever see it on the assignment slide.

4 Before You Teach

Image Placeholders 8–13 per deck	Each deck has labeled placeholder boxes describing exactly what to insert (e.g., 'Ponce de Leon portrait — hi
Speaker Notes Every slide	Full teacher scripts in the notes pane — think-aloud language, discussion facilitation cues, and timing guidance
Retrieval Challenges 1–2 per deck	Slides that prompt students to 'cover your screen and name all four from memory.' These are intentionally spa
